From Genesis through Revelation, God laid the foundation for our promise of healing. You see, when God created the earth there was no sickness:

And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. And God blessed them. (Genesis 1:26-28)

The Bible goes on to say that “God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good” (v. 31). When God created Adam there was no sickness on earth. Sickness entered the earth through man’s transgression and rebellion against God. Sin invaded the souls of Adam and Eve, and the result of that sin was sorrow (Genesis 3:16).

Praise the Lord, the story of humanity does not end there. Romans 6:23 declares, “For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.”

God sent His Son, Jesus Christ, to die for our sins. Jesus’s death on the cross of Calvary not only brings salvation to our souls, but it also removes our sickness, sorrow, and pain. The book of Romans goes on to say:

Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned.... Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. For he that is dead is freed from sin. Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him: Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him. For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God. (Romans 5:12; 6:6-10)

Thank God for the blood of Jesus that removes all unrighteousness and delivers our lives from destruction. Jesus has provided for our spiritual and physical deliverance from the influence of this world. There is no transgression in Him, and today we are alive in Christ Jesus: “I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me” (Galatians 2:20).

Forgiveness and healing are found in Christ Jesus. Jesus came to heal the sick, and I have good news: He is still healing the sick today. In Luke, Jesus said, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, To preach the acceptable year of the Lord" (Luke 4:18-19).

My beloved friend Oral Roberts, a general in the faith and a recent guest on my television program This Is Your Day! said that "Jesus came teaching, preaching, and healing." He added, "If Jesus only preached, He wouldn't have been as effective. If Jesus only taught, He wouldn't have been as effective. Jesus came to heal, preach, and teach." Jesus's fame spread abroad because He did all three. Jesus's effectiveness in ministry would've been lessened without one or the other.

Words of healing, found in every book of the Bible, are part of the Gospel. Our God is a God of miracles, and His holy Word is the key to building faith. Miracles take place when God's people understand that His power is real. That is why I have prepared this booklet for you. Meditation upon God's Word brings God's touch, strength, and renewal.

Divine health and healing are promised to you over and over in God's precious Word. No matter what your circumstances are today, the Bible is strong and true. Hold on to God's promises by faith, for as you do, God will surely intervene and make a way where there may seem to be no way for you.

Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases; Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies; Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.

—Psalm 103:2-5

Seek the LORD and his strength, seek his face continually.

—1 Chronicles 16:11

God is and has always been the Healer. He said, "I am the LORD that healeth thee." It is His will for you to live in divine health. Whatever you are facing today, the God of miracles is able to perfect all that concerns you. You can trust Him to restore your health and renew your youth.

I will meditate also of all thy work, and talk of thy doings. Thy way, O God, is in the sanctuary: who is so great a God as our God? Thou art the God that doest wonders: thou hast declared thy strength among the people.

—Psalm 77:12-14

Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

—Philippians 4:6

Literally, take your requests to the Lord. Don't hesitate to say, "Lord, here is the need I am bringing to You today." He knows our petitions before we even ask, yet God is waiting to hear the cry of our heart.

Hearken unto this, O Job: stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God.

—Job 37:14

And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly;
and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

—1 Thessalonians 5:23

How do you experience God's overflow? The key is simply to come to Jesus. Peter understood this and that is why the anointing was so great upon his life that his very shadow carried God's healing presence.
